

Decision making process, including channels of supervision and accountability

Central Cottage Industries Corporation of India Ltd. is a Company registered under the Companies Act, 1956 being managed by its Board of Director and MD has been authorized with delegated powers and duties for day to day activities. The Board of Directors' meeting takes place in each quarter for discussion, consideration and formulation of various policies. Each Departmental Head of CCIC follows laid down procedures of the Corporation keeping in view the Board of Directors' decisions and directives, the delegation of powers, various approved policies, DPE guidelines, CVC guidelines and other related rules applicable under the law for preparing proposal for decisions making and are initiated from the concerned officer putting up to each superior officer for supervision / approval of the Competent Authority.